Matthew 22:36-40 (NRSV):

36 ‘Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?’ 37 He said to him, ‘“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.” 38 This is the greatest and first commandment.
39 And a second is like it: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.’

Share these ideas:

Is it easier to love God, your neighbor, or yourself?
How do you show your love to God, yourself and neighbor?
How could the law depend on this love?

Share your stories:

Have you ever been surprised to realize that you love someone?
Do you love different people and ideas differently?

Bless each other:

Imagine describing God to someone who has no faith or interest in faith.
What would you say?
How would you hope to develop their interest in God?
